

S.R. Snodgrass Names New Firm President

WEXFORD, PENNSYLVANIA, APRIL 26, 2016—As Snodgrass celebrates its 70th year as an independent accounting and consulting firm, we look to the future to continue our success. Jack Salvetti has decided to step down as our President to make way for our next generation of leadership, and on April 1, Charles E. Marston was named President of our firm. Chuck has been an integral part of Snodgrass for over 18 years, leading our tax practice and serving on the Board of Directors. His expertise and enjoyment serving clients will continue as he enters his new role. As President, Chuck will continue to promote the values that have made Snodgrass a leader in the financial services industry and a valued partner to our clients. Chuck resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Elizabeth, and daughters, Caroline and Casey.

About S.R. Snodgrass, P.C.

S.R. Snodgrass is a regional accounting and consulting firm with offices in Wexford, King of Prussia, and Allentown, Pennsylvania. Founded in 1946, Snodgrass operates six distinct business units: business consulting, assurance services, internal audit and regulatory compliance outsourcing, information systems security, network security penetration services and tax planning and preparation. Snodgrass possesses a strong reputation in the financial services industry as thought leaders and practitioners, currently working with approximately 160 financial institutions.

###